

ARE YOU AN ARTIST residing in the central Upper Peninsula?

Marquette Monthly is now accepting submissions for our 2022 Covers.

Whether you are a long-standing contributor to MM or an up-and-coming new artist, we are interested in reviewing your work!

Covers are 9.75" wide x 12" high and will be in full color.
Work should represent our area's landscape, people or culture.
Multiple submissions are allowed.

Submission deadline is December 1, 2021.
Submissions can be emailed to info@marquettmonthly.com.

We will then review all the submissions and choose the 12 Marquette Monthly covers for 2022.
All artists will be notified if their work has been chosen and if so, which month it will run on the cover.
MM will not use or keep the submissions not chosen.
